CERTIFICATION TIME PERIOD

PCB certification encompasses two calendar years commencing on the date of successful completion of the examination. Two dates, date of issue and valid through, will appear on the certificate along with a certification number.

APPEAL PROCESS

The purpose of appeal is to determine if PCB accurately, adequately and fairly reviewed applicant's file. A letter requesting an appeal must be made to PCB in writing within 30 days of the notification of the board's action. A person shall be considered notified three days after the relevant date of mailing. The written appeal will be sent to the Executive Committee who in turn will thoroughly review the entire application and materials to determine whether or not applicant should have been denied approval. Applicant will be notified in writing as to the findings of the Executive Committee.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

Type: This credential requires successful completion of the IC&RC exam which is offered as a computer based exam. Four hours are permitted to complete the 175 question, multiple choice exam. Candidates will be notified by PCB, once application for certification is approved, on how to register for the computer based exam.

Content: The IC&RC Job Task Analysis for this credential identified domains which make up the questions in the exam. Within each domain are several identified tasks that provide the basis for questions in the exam.

Candidate Guide: The domains, including the knowledge and skill areas of each domain, sample exam questions, and a list of references are included in the free Candidate Guide. Candidate Guides will be sent to candidates prior to exam scheduling. Candidate Guides are also available from the PCB website at www.pacertboard.org by clicking on "Testing."

Study Guides: Professional study guides have been published for several of the exams including ADC, AADC, CCS, CCJP, CCDP and CPS. Study Guides are available for sale from DLCAS at www.ReadyToTest.com.

Dates: The IC&RC exam is offered on demand at approved testing centers thereby allowing candidates to test on a date and time convenient for them. Candidates will receive information from PCB on registering for on demand testing once application for certification is approved.

Locations: There are five computer based testing sites in Pennsylvania – one in the Harrisburg area, two in the Philadelphia area, and two in the Pittsburgh area. Candidates can choose the testing site that is closest for their travel.

Special Situations: Individuals with disabilities and/or religious obligations that require modifications in exam administration may request specific procedure changes, in writing, to PCB no fewer than 60 days prior to the scheduled exam date. With the written request, candidate must provide official documentation of the disability or religious issue. Contact PCB on what constitutes official documentation. PCB will make arrangements for appropriate modifications to its procedures when documentation supports this need.

Cancellation/Rescheduling Policy: Candidates are required to arrive on time for their exam. Candidates who arrive late will not be permitted to test and will be charged a $150.00 cancellation/rescheduling fee. Candidates who cancel or reschedule their exam less than five days prior to their scheduled date will be charged the full testing fee. Candidates who cancel or reschedule more than five days before their scheduled date will be charged a $25.00 cancellation/rescheduling fee.

Retest: Candidates failing the exam can retest after a 60 day wait period from date of last taking the exam. Candidates will be sent retest instructions from PCB.

RECERTIFICATION

To maintain the high standards of this professional practice and to assure continuing awareness of new knowledge in the field, PCB requires recertification every two years.

To be recertified as a CAADC, an individual must:

1. Hold a current and valid certificate issued by PCB;
2. Acquire 40 hours of PCB approved education including three hours in professional ethics and responsibilities received within the two year recertification cycle. Professionals recertifying their credential(s) may be subject to an audit. Review the recertification application for more details;
3. Verify that you have reviewed, read and will uphold by practice the PCB Code of Ethical Conduct for professional behavior;
4. Complete an application and pay the recertification fee.

LAPSED CERTIFICATION

The completed recertification application should be received at PCB prior to the expiration date. If the application is incomplete, applicant will be notified by phone or email depending on what has been indicated by applicant.

There is no grace period. If the recertification is not completed by the expiration date, the individual will no longer hold a CAADC and no further use of the CAADC is permitted until the individual has recertified.

All certified professionals should review the recertification application well in advance of the expiration date. A Reinstatement Fee is due if the recertification is late between one day and 12 months. After 12 months, no recertification is possible and applicant would have to reapply for the credential, meeting all current requirements.

INTERNATIONAL CERTIFICATION & RECIPROcity CONSORTIUM (IC&RC)

The purpose of the IC&RC is:

- to promote uniform professional standards and quality assurance for the alcohol and drug profession and to give the profession greater visibility throughout the United States and other countries;
- to negotiate reciprocity agreements for alcohol and drug professionals with certification bodies throughout the United States and other countries;
- to provide support services, including consultation and training to all states in all areas of certification, such as establishment of standards, evaluation of competence, establishment and training of boards and committees;
- to provide information on certification and certification activities throughout the United States and other countries;
- to provide an International Certificate (ICAADC) for counselors meeting specified qualifications certified by individual IC&RC member certification boards. Any IC&RC certified alcohol and drug counselor is eligible. ICAADC certificates are provided free of charge from IC&RC;
- to promote uniform professional standards in AADC specialty disciplines.

Certified professionals in the state of Pennsylvania have reciprocity with many certifying bodies throughout the United States and other countries as well as all of the armed services. For reciprocity process and/or a listing of member boards, please call the PCB Office.

DISCIPLINE IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS

- Rule 9.1 A certified professional holding a certification, license, or other authorization to practice issued by any certification authority or any state, province, territory, tribe, or federal government whose certification or license has been suspended, revoked, placed on probation, or other restriction or discipline shall promptly alert the Board of such disciplinary action.

COOPERATION WITH THE BOARD

- Rule 10.1 A certified professional shall cooperate in any investigation conducted pursuant to this Code of Ethical Conduct and shall not interfere with an investigation or a disciplinary proceeding or attempt to prevent a disciplinary proceeding or other legal action from being filed, prosecuted, or completed. Interference attempts may include but are not limited to:

1. the willful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative;
2. the use of threats or harassment against, or an inducement to, any client or witness in an effort to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;
3. the use of threats or harassment against, or an inducement to, any person in an effort to prevent or attempt to prevent a disciplinary proceeding or other
4. legal action from being filed, prosecuted or completed;
5. refusing to accept and/or respond to a letter of complaint, allowing a credential to lapse while an ethics complaint is pending, or attempting to resign a credential while an ethics complaint is pending. Violation of this rule under these circumstances will result in the immediate and indefinite suspension of the certified professional's credential until the ethical complaint is resolved.

Rule 10.2 A certified professional shall:

1. not make a false statement to the PCB or any other disciplinary authority;
2. promptly alert colleagues informally to potentially unethical behavior so said colleague could take corrective action;
3. report violations of professional conduct of other certified professionals to the appropriate licensing/disciplinary authority when he/she knows or should have known that another certified professional has violated ethical standards and has failed to take corrective action after informal intervention.

Rule 10.3 A certified professional shall report any uncorrected violation of the Code of Ethical Conduct within 90 days of alleged violation. Failure to report a violation may be grounds for discipline.

Rule 10.4 A certified professional with firsthand knowledge of the actions of a respondent or a complainant shall cooperate with the PCB investigation or disciplinary proceeding. Failure or an unwillingness to cooperate in the PCB investigation or disciplinary proceeding shall be grounds for disciplinary action.

Rule 10.5 A certified professional shall not file a complaint or provide information to the PCB, which he/she knows or should have known, is false or misleading.

Rule 10.6 In submitting information to PCB, a certified professional shall comply with any requirements pertaining to the disclosure of client information established by the federal or state government.
