December 31, 2020*

PURPOSE OF THE CANDIDATE GUIDE

The examination for Certified Recovery Specialists is an examination that tests knowledge and skills about the recovery process. The exam is based on current research in the field.

The purpose of the Candidate Guide is to provide you with guidance for the CRS examination process. By providing you with background information on examination domains and sample questions, your preparation for the exam can be enhanced.

EXAMINATION CONTENT

The 2014 Job Task Analysis for the CRS identified three performance domains. Within each performance domain there are several identified knowledge and skill areas that provide the basis for questions in the examination. This Candidate Guide contains detailed information on the domains, knowledge, and skill areas. The following is a list of the performance domains for the examination and the number of test questions in each.

RECOVERY SPECIALIST DOMAINS

NUMBER OF QUESTIONS

Recovery Management	18
Education and Advocacy	12
Professional Ethics and Responsibility	20

TAKING THE EXAMINATION

The examination consists of 50 multiple-choice questions. One and a half (1.5) hours is provided for completion of the examination.

The CRS examination follows a 3-option multiple-choice format. Questions of this type begin with a stem, the premise statement, and are followed by three options. In answering the questions, candidates should read the stem and options carefully. They should then select the one best answer.

The test measures the three major Performance Domains about the recovery process. Test questions are designed to assess knowledge as well as the candidate's ability to work with those in recovery from alcohol and other drug abuse. Successful candidates will draw on knowledge, analysis, and application to identify the one best option.

In taking the test, you may find it helpful to eliminate obviously incorrect responses after the first reading so as to increase the probability of selecting the best response. If you determine that there are two reasonable options, you should select the most plausible choice.

The questions in the examination are multiple choice with three (3) choices marked A, B, and C. There is only one correct choice for each question. Carefully read each question and all of the choices before making a selection. Choose the single best answer. Mark your answer on the answer sheet by blackening the circle under the letter of your choice.
