

RECOVERY SPECIALIST TRAINING PROGRAM

What is a Recovery Specialist?

A Recovery Specialist is an individual with personal, lived experience of their own recovery from substance use disorder (SUD) or the SUD recovery journey of a family member.

A Recovery Specialist is a role model, mentor, advocate, and motivator. Recovery Specialists advocate for the individual, the recovery system, recovery-oriented services, and assist to identify and reduce stigma. Recovery Specialists advocate to eliminate barriers, increase natural support, and build community. Services provided by the Recovery Specialist can substantially improve an individual's and family's ability to sustain recovery and wellness.

LCCC's Recovery Specialist Training program is for college students or professionals who are interested in applying for the Certified Recovery Specialist (CRS) or Certified Family Recovery Specialist (CFRS) through the Pennsylvania Certification Board.

Upon completion of this training, individuals are equipped with the knowledge and skills needed to sit for and pass the Pennsylvania certification exam.
