

REGIONAL RECOVERY HUB 4

Recovery Specialist

10 Day Specialized Training

78 PCB Approved Hours of Education

10 Saturdays:

August 15 - October 17, 2025

9:00AM – 4:30PM

LIMITED SEATS AVAILABLE

at: Key Recovery Outpatient Services 5000 Hilltop Dr.
Brookhaven, PA 19015

NO COST TO ATTEND*

This project is funded under a Grant agreement with the Pennsylvania Department of Drug and Alcohol Programs.

"Get Help Now" hotline number (1-800-662-HELP)

*Does not include the $150 fee that will be needed after the training when applying for the certification itself, payable to the PA Certification Board.

Transforming Lives Through Sustained Recovery!

This training is for professionals who are interested in applying to become a Certified Recovery Specialist (CRS) and/ or a Certified Family Recovery Specialist (CFRS) through the Pennsylvania Certification Board.

CRS training qualifications – the candidate must have a minimum of 18 months continuous lived substance use disorder recovery experience and abstinence, and a High School Diploma/ GED or higher prior to registering for the training.

CFRS training qualifications – the candidate must be able to self-identify as a person who has experienced a journey of recovery after being impacted by a family member or loved one's substance use disorder and their subsequent experience navigating multiple systems. Minimum of a High School diploma/ GED proof of education required.

Minimum of a High School diploma/ GED, proof of education required.

To Apply, visit <https://bit.ly/DelcoSummer26>
by July 28th, 2026

(Applications are considered in the order received.)

*type in URL exactly as listed above or use QR code ->

For More Information contact: Fred Shue – fshue@councilsepa.org 267-817-7016