CERTIFICATION BOARD

2019 Certified Professional of the Year Award Nominations Due by March 1, 2019

PCB is pleased to announce the awards process is now open for deserving individuals to be nominated for the PCB Certified Professional of the Year. The award will be presented at the PCB Annual Conference to be held at the Eden Resort & Suites in Lancaster, PA on April 15-16, 2019.

The award recipient will be honored during the PCB Annual Conference; receive a plaque; receive recognition on the PCB website; receive a free registration to the PCB Annual Conference and for one guest; and will also receive their next renewal (recertification) fee waived.

Please take a moment to nominate a deserving individual for this prestigious award. Help PCB and the field celebrate excellence!

Certified Professional of the Year recognizes an individual who is currently fully credentialed and in good standing with the PCB and has made a demonstrable contribution to the service of prevention, treatment, or recovery in the behavioral health field through their work and/or personal efforts.

Candidates must:

- Hold a current and valid PCB credential;
- Demonstrate leadership;
- Achieve results;
- Advocate for consumers;
- Exemplify ethical standards set forth by the PCB Code of Ethical Conduct.

Nominating Process/Procedures:

1. Complete the PCB Awards Nomination Form on the next page filling in all requested information.
2. Provide a one-page summary of the contributions/accomplishments of the nominee.
3. Supporting documentation may be submitted but is not required (i.e. letters of recommendation, newsletter or newspaper articles containing information about the nominee or the program, resume of nominee).
4. Those nominated and selected will be notified in writing by PCB.

Nominations are due to the PCB Office by March 1, 2019. Choose one of the options below to submit your nomination.

Nominations can be:

Mailed to PCB, 298 S. Progress Avenue, Harrisburg, PA 17109
