

CLINICAL HUMILITY
"ARE YOU RIGHT SIZED"

1

Margaret Eckles-Ray, BA, CADC, CRS
717.850.2344 (O)
717.472.3056 (M)
Margaret.eckles-ray@acadiahealthcare.com

- Program Director
- White Deer Run York Assessment Center
- Certified Drug & Alcohol Counselor
- University of Maryland, College Park
- York College of Pennsylvania
- Business Owner - Women's Empowerment, Mentorship & Life Coaching

2

CONTENT

- Why Are We Here?
- What About Our Clients?
- What About Us?
- Why Is This Relevant?

3

REASONS FOR ENTERING THIS FIELD?

- Understanding the need through personal experience
- Desire to assist others suffering from addiction
- Desire to effect change

4

WHAT MOTIVATES YOU?

- What initially motivated you?
- Why are you still here?
- Does your initial motivation still drive you?
- Have we lost our way?

5

WILL YOU REMAIN IN THIS FIELD?

- What is your current motivation?
- Does the field continue to meet your vision?
- Are you still committed to your original goals?
- Do you desire to remain in this field?

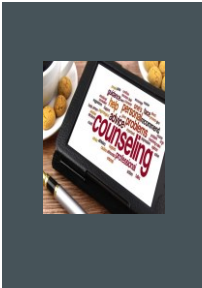

6

WHY IS THIS RELEVANT?

- Reason for being here?
- Motivation?
- Commitment?

7

WHAT ABOUT OUR CLIENTS?

- Do we continue to create a space that is growth oriented, curious and caring?
- Are we remaining right sized?
- Do we remain humble as we continue to advance professionally?

8

WHAT ABOUT US?

- Are we taking the necessary steps to keep ourselves safe and engaged?
- Are we utilizing ethical practices?
- Are we maintaining healthy boundaries?

9

PROGRESS

ARE WE EVOLVING?

- Is our evolution still about the revolution?
- What drives us now?
- Do we have new aspirations?

10

Working in the substance use disorder field is both challenging and rewarding. Helping others break free from the cycle of addiction is a noble goal, but it requires, care, experience, and a humble willingness to evaluate our own motivations and behavior.

11

THANK YOU!

12
