APPEAL PROCESS

The purpose of appeal is to determine if PCB accurately, adequately and fairly reviewed applicant's file. A letter requesting an appeal must be made to PCB in writing within 30 days of the notification of the board's action. A person shall be considered notified three days after the relevant date of mailing. The written appeal will be sent to the Executive Committee who in turn will thoroughly review the entire application and materials to determine whether or not applicant should have been denied approval. Applicant will be notified in writing as to the findings of the Executive Committee.

RECERTIFICATION

To maintain the high standards of this professional practice and to assure continuing awareness of new knowledge in the field, PCB requires recertification every five years.

To be recertified as a CDCORP, an individual must:

1. Hold a current and valid CDCORP issued by PCB;
2. Document two exercises or actual deployments, and five elective trainings (one annually) from the following categories in all hazard response: Ethics, Cultural Diversity, Self Care/Stress Management/Resilience in Emergency Response, Trauma, CISM, NOVA, Mass Care, Shelter Operations, MH Triage/Assessment, Compassion Fatigue, Resiliency & Recovery, Substance Use & Trauma, Death Notification, Loss/Grief, Special Populations, PFA, Pennsylvania Department of Health Electronic Learning Management System (PA DOH ELMS), any Homeland Security/FEMA/EMI based training and all other hazard trainings that are approved by the Office of Mental Health & Substance Abuse Services, Office of the Medical Director;
3. Verify that you have reviewed, read and will uphold by practice the Code of Ethical Conduct for professional behavior;
4. Complete an application and pay the recertification fee of $75.

LAPSED CERTIFICATION

The completed recertification application should be received at PCB prior to the expiration date. If the application is incomplete, applicant will be notified by phone or email depending on what has been indicated by applicant.

There is no grace period. If the recertification is not completed by the expiration date, the individual will no longer hold a CDCORP and no further use of the CDCORP is permitted until the individual has recertified.

All certified professionals should review the recertification application well in advance of the expiration date. A Reinstatement Fee is due if the recertification is late between one day and 12 months. After 12 months, no recertification is possible and applicant would have to reapply for the credential, meeting all current requirements.

SERVPA

If you would consider volunteering for emergency disaster response efforts, SERVPA is your secure, confidential volunteer registry site. Registering through SERVPA simply tells them that you are open to the idea of volunteering in case of an emergency and provides us a little about your background, preferences, and constraints. It does not guarantee that you will be called upon, nor does it mean that you must participate if called. If you are called to volunteer, you will have the opportunity to learn more about the specific event and the commitment required. You can then choose if volunteering for the specific event is right for you.

You can sign up at www.serv.pa.gov.
