APPLICATION INFORMATION

APPEAL PROCESS IF APPLICATION IS DENIED

The purpose of appeal is to determine if the Board accurately, adequately and fairly reviewed an application that is denied. A letter requesting an appeal must be sent to the Board in writing within 30 days of the notification of the Board's action. An applicant shall be considered notified three days after the relevant date of mailing. The written appeal will be sent to the Executive Committee who in turn will thoroughly review the entire application and materials to determine whether or not applicant should have been denied approval. The applicant will be notified in writing as to the findings of the Executive Committee.

CERTIFICATION TIME PERIOD

Certification encompasses two calendar years beginning on the date the application is approved. The certificate issued to the professional lists the following information: name of professional, credential name, date of issue, date of expiration and certification number.

FELONIES & DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

While felonies and disciplinary actions from other certification/licensing entities may not prohibit certification, documentation is required to be submitted at the time of application. Certification through the Board does not mean a professional should not disclose this information to potential employers and does not in any way exonerate charges.

REQUESTS TO CHANGE APPLICATION

Professionals who wish to have their application re-reviewed for another credential the Board offers prior to taking the examination, or after an unsuccessful attempt at the examination will incur a $50 application change/review fee.

RECERTIFICATION

To maintain the high standards of professional practice and to assure continuing awareness of new knowledge in the field, the Board requires recertification every two years. Professionals should review the Recertification Application for credential specific requirements listed on the Board website well in advance of their expiration date.

ROLE OF THE COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER

A Community Health Worker (CHW) is a trusted individual who contributes to improved health outcomes in the community. CHWs serve the communities in which they reside or communities with which they may share ethnicity, language, socioeconomic status, or life experiences. The term "community health worker," includes but is not limited to other titles such as outreach worker, patient navigator and promotores de salud.

A CHW proactively:

- builds individual and community capacity by increasing health knowledge and self-sufficiency through a range of activities such as outreach, community education, informal counseling, social support and advocacy;
- serves as a liaison between communities and health care agencies;
- provides guidance and social assistance to community residents;
- enhances community residents' ability to effectively communicate with healthcare providers;
- provides culturally and linguistically appropriate health education;
- advocates for individual and community health;
- provides referral and follow-up services or otherwise coordinates care; and
- identifies and helps enroll eligible individuals in federal, state, and local private or nonprofit health and human services programs.

CERTIFIED COMMUNITY HEALTH WORKER REQUIREMENTS

Prior to submitting your application, applicants must have all requirements completed and documented.

EXPERIENCE & SUPERVISION

Qualifying experience is based upon an individual providing services that are specific to the community health worker domains.

Only employment within the last five (5) years may be counted towards the total experience requirement.

If the applicant's experience requirement is not fulfilled from their current employer, they must include a letter (on company letterhead) from previous employer(s) verifying their duties and dates employed with their application.

• Experience: one (1) year of full-time volunteer or paid employment or 2000 hours of part-time of volunteer or paid employment.

Supervision is a formal or informal process that is evaluative, and supportive. It can be provided by more than one person, it ensures quality of services, and extends over time. Supervision includes observation, mentoring, coaching, evaluating, inspiring, and creating an atmosphere that promotes self-motivation, learning, and professional development. In all aspects of the supervision process, ethical and diversity issues must be in the forefront.

• Supervision: 60 hours specific to the domains. Hours may be included in the total experience requirement.

CURRENT VOLUNTEER/JOB DESCRIPTION

All applicants must include their current job description with their application. This document is provided by your employer and must be signed and dated by you and your supervisor. Job descriptions are reviewed as a part of experience verification. If your supervisor does not have your job description, you should contact your organization's Human Resource department. The Board does not provide the job description.

• Current volunteer/job description: obtained from employer.

EDUCATION

Education is defined as formal, structured instruction in the form of workshops, trainings, seminars, inservices, college/university credit courses and online education. If you provide this type of education to other professionals, you may use it towards the education requirement with documentation from the organization or college/university. Most three-credit college/university courses are 45 hours. There is no time limit on the use of education for initial certification.

Education review is available prior to application submission with the use of the Education Review Form on the Board website.

• Education: 75 total hours of education relevant to the field of community health.

CCHW DOMAINS

- 1. Community Health Concepts
- 2. Advocacy and Capacity Building
- 3. Care Coordination
- 4. Health Literacy and Education
- 5. Safety and Self-Care
- 6. Cultural Competency
- 7. Communication and Interpersonal Skills
- 8. Ethical Responsibilities and Professionalism

FEE

The application fee may be paid by check, money order or with VISA, MasterCard, Discover or American Express. One-half of the application fee is refundable if application is denied. If an employer or organization is paying the application fee, they must include the applicants name with the payment. Failure to include the applicants name will result in delay in approval of the application.

• Application Fee: $50 (fee must accompany application and materials)

CCHW APPLICATION: SUPERVISION DOCUMENTATION FORM

Form to be completed by Applicant's current and/or previous supervisor(s).

This form is not intended to document all experience or supervision hours of the applicant, rather the minimum hours required for the certification. Please note: the standard hours accepted for supervision is two (2) hours per week. If you document more than that for the applicant (your supervisee) you will need to provide documentation to the Board for the hours to be accepted. This will delay the approval of your supervisee's application.

Supervision is a formal or informal process that is evaluative, and supportive. It can be provided by more than one person, it ensures quality of services, and extends over time. Supervision includes observation, mentoring, coaching, evaluating, inspiring, and creating an atmosphere that promotes self-motivation, learning, and professional development. In all aspects of the supervision process, ethical and diversity issues must be in the forefront.
